

Your new service known as Low Power FM may interfere with a local radio station called K-LOVE. K-LOVE is a great service to my community as it offers very positive and encouraging music and programming, something that is becoming very rare at most stations. It would be a bad decision to replace K-LOVE with a Low Power FM station and I'm asking you to reconsider your decision to promote Low Power FM stations. Thank you.